Guidelines for the Booking/ Use of the Camp

1. Large groups will be contacted by our camp staff after payment of deposit for discussion of programme and other arrangements, viz. Registration procedures, hostel allocations, schedule of activities, etc. For special arrangement, organization representatives should telephone the Camp Office at 27924302 well in advance.
2. Site visits may be prearranged with the Camp Office, with identity badges being issued for a one-hour free visit. Visits exceeding one hour or meals to be served shall be subject to charges according to the Day Camp Fare Schedule.
3. All camp fees and meal charges should be settled one month prior to the camping date in person or by mail with the Cashier's Office at the Kuk's Headquarters at 66 Leighton Road, Causeway Bay Hong Kong. No reminder will be issued, as it is the campers' responsibility to adhere to such regulations.
4. If typhoon signal No.3 or higher or the Black Rainstorm signal is hoisted before the registration, all activity shall be ceased and all pre-registered bookings shall be cancelled and refunded (for camping sessions of two or more nights, cancellations would apply only to the day(s) on which one of the above signals is hoisted. Campers are requested to enroll according to the attached time schedule when the weather signals are lowered). If such weather signals should be hoisted during the camping period, the Camp Manager or his/her stand-in officer shall have the full discretion to demand, on safety reasons. For vacating of the camp, under which circumstances the camp fees and meal charges unconsumed will be refunded on pro rata basis.
5. On-site request for additional accommodation or meals will not be entertained. Children over 3 years of age shall be charged at full fare. Any unregistered participants, if detected, will be fined 300% of the original camp fee and meal charges.
6. No outside food or beverages will be allowed for consumption at the eating area of the camp.
7. Meals shall be served 10 persons per table. Each BBQ stove is to be shared by 10 campers. No self-brought food will be allowed for cooking or BBQ within the camp, otherwise a penalty of $100 will be imposed for each stove.
8. Campers are required to take their meals according to the time segments allocated. Reprovision shall not be arranged for latecomers nor refund made for non-appearance.
9. Campers are to carry with them their HK Identity Card or other legal ID for identification.
10. Campers are requested to obtain a registration slip from the duty officer at the Camp Office if they would wish to break-away from the camp intermily. The registration slip should be presented to the security officer at the front gate for record when leaving the camp site.
11. The official receipt (copy also accepted) should be presented when registering with the Camp Office. BBQ Order Slip should be presented to canteen attendant at specified time for redemption of food. Late requests will not be entertained.
12. Limited parking facilities for private vehicles are available to campers on advance application to the camp office, on a first come first serve basis. Non-recorded parking is strictly prohibited. Coaches and buses are restricted except for loading and unloading of campers.
